TUESDAY TEA: A WALDORF CLASS FOR PARENTS

TUESDAY TEA for January 28

The topic for this Tuesday's Tea will be:

"Sleep, the Unseen Aspect of Waldorf Education".

We will discuss how teachers use sleep in their teaching and will craft something to make sleep easier to attain, for both children and adults.

Please note that we will meet in the handwork room after drop-off, at 8:30 on Tuesday, January 28th. (RSVP if you can, but do not stay away if you've forgotten!)

Warmly, Donna

Valentine's Day Fun!

A photograph of a handmade doll with a red heart, surrounded by pinecones and other craft materials. The doll has a white knitted head, red felt hair, and a purple felt body. It is holding a large red heart. The background is a warm, orange-brown color with a pinecone and other craft materials visible.

Golden Cottage Winter Camp

During parent teacher conferences, Feb 12 and 13, Golden Cottage will be hosting a craft and activities camp. Cost is $50 per day and is open from 8:00am-6:00pm. You must sign up and pay in advance. Please sign up at the AWS office in person or by phone.

This camp is open to all AWS families as well as current Winterberry children attending Golden Cottage.

If you just need care for just the duration of your parent teacher conference there is no charge. Please, no siblings under 3.

2020 Waldorf Calendars! Limited Supply on Hand!

The 6/7 class would like to remind everyone to stop by and pick up a copy of the new 2020 Waldorf calendar. These are in limited supply and once they are gone we will not be printing more. The calendars make a great gift and feature artwork from students in every grade. stop by the front desk to purchase one today!

Cost is $20 each

Helping Hand

Help us reconnect with our community members. We need someone to sort our records and call old contacts as we build a centralized database. Email Tasha at outreach@waldorf.org for more info. Please note that due to the nature of this project, we will require a background check and signed confidentiality agreement. Let's build our community together.
