TUESDAY TEA: A WALDORF CLASS FOR PARENTS

Parents who wish they could have gone to a Waldorf school can join me

each Tuesday morning after drop-off for an hour of tea, activities, and a study to answer the why's of Waldorf education.

This Tuesday, Feb. 4th, we will continue crafting something for both children and adults, to help with sleep. We will also delve into the topic of Rudolf Steiner's model of child development. It's helpful to give the office an RSVP, but drop-ins are always welcome!

What: Waldorf Education for Parents

Where: In the Handwork Room

When: Tuesdays, 8:30 – 9:30 a.m.

Who: Donna Levesque

Warmly,

Donna

Helping Hand

Help us reconnect with our community members. We need someone to sort our records and call old contacts as we build a centralized database. Email Tasha at outreach@waldorf.org for more info. Please note that due to the nature of this project, we will require a background check and signed confidentiality agreement. Let's build our community together.

Upcoming Events:
